

2010 Gold Coast Cup

Hosted by the ICKFA (Gold Coast Branch) Inc
For members of the International Chito-Ryu Karate Federation of Australia Inc

Event Information Package

The Event

The 3rd Annual Gold Coast Chito-Ryu Karate Cup will be the first regional Chito-Ryu tournament for 2010 providing a great opportunity to gain additional experience and match practise for the Soke Cup.

There are different divisions for all levels and ages and we look forward to a high standard of competition conducted in the true spirit of karate-do. All competitors in events marked with a medal on the entry form will receive a participation commemorative medallion.

Accommodation

The Gold Coast has a large range of accommodation options to suit all budget levels. The tournament venue (Labrador) located on the Northern end of the Gold Coast. The Gold Coast Dojo is located at Molendinar which is central/northern Gold Coast.

For accommodation a search of the web will provide plenty of options. If you would like to check the suitability of a location please email adamhiggins@gckarate.com.au.

Please note that the Gold Coast can become busy at this time of year so it pays to book early.
